WAUKEGAN HAS CASE OF SMALL POX

Northwestern Brakeman is Removed to Pest House Monday Morning

THOUGHT IT CHICKEN POX

How He Contracted it Said to be Solved by Fact that Sister-in-law had What Was Thought to be Chicken Pox

Charles Ray, well known Northwestern brakeman, agen 21, was discovered Sunday by a physician to be suffering from an attack of small pox of a light form and was Monday morning removed to the Waukegan pest house at the city limits, where he is receiving attention.

E. D. Russell has been reappointed guard and will remain with Ray until he is discharged.

When, acting under Chief of Police Tyrrell's orders, Monday morning Guard Russell opened the pest house it was found that for the second time miscreants had visited it and stolen various small articles, conspicuous among them a clock. Previous to this invasion and before the last batch of patients were installed at the pest house, thieves raided the place and stole the bed clothes used by patients.

There is a queer theory as to how Ray came to get the small pox. A sister-in-law is said to have visited the Rays, who live at 126 Hickory street, three weeks ago, and she is said to have been suffering from what was at the time regurded as a light attack of chicken pox.

She came from Waverly, Iowa. It is now believed that she had small pox in a very light form instead of chicken pox, and it is believed that Ray may have contracted his case in this manner.

At first Ray's case was thought to be chicken pox. This was Thursday, when he was taken sick, and all indications pointed to the safer theory. However, later, he developed a well defined but light case of small pox and the eruptions are now not to be mistaken it is said hence his confinement at the pest house.

Vaccination and quarantine were both enforced by the city officials against all who had been exposed to Ray's case.

He resides with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G E. Ray, but others had come in contact with him in a manner that would endanger them it is said and all were either vaccinated or put under a rigid system of surveillance until the medical ten days are expired. There is no danger of spread of the disease.

Waukegan in the last two years, with its ten or twelve cases, has had more small pox than in all the sixty years preceding.

DEMOCRATS ENDORSE BRYAN AT CONVENTION

Features of the county democracy convention held at Waukegan Saturday were the endorsement of William Jennings Bryan for president, a strong speech made by George Lynch of Libertyville in favor of Nicholas Johnson of Minnesota for the presidency, and a hot address in favor of local option by J. C. James, Jr., of Antioch.

Delegates to the state convention were chosen as follows:

Waukegan—Daniel A. Grady, Fred S. Bellows, Peter McDermott.

Antioch—J. C. James, Jr.

Lake Zurich—W. C. Spooner.

Highland Park—John Sheehan.

Libertyville—George Lynch.

Deerfield—Dennis Gibbons, minority representative.

Representative Gibbons received a strong endorsement together with Bryan.

One prominent Democrat got to the convention late and started in to organize and play politics only to find that the session had adjourned and everything was over.

The convention was held at 109 North Genesee street, above the McDermott saloon and was so announced on notices mailed out.

However two delegates, M. H. Hussey and W. E. Miller, were delayed hunting for the meeting place and did not arrive until it was all over and everthing done.

The state convention takes place April 23 at Springfield.

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at J. H. Swan's drug store. 50c.

PRISONERS ESCAPE AT FORT

Soldiers and Mob of Citizens Scour the Nearby Woods

Two military prisoners and their guard escaped from Fort Sheridan Saturday night.

The prisoners were repairing the roads about the post when Private Thomas N. Huff and the two prisones, Phillip A. Schneider, 29 years old, and Bernard Cowan, 28 years old, over whom he had been placed as sentry, left the post unnoticed.

Col. Walter O. Finley, in command of the post, ordered a provost guard, consisting of almost the entire garrison, to search for the deserters. The fields and the prairie in the vicinity of the fort were scoured in all directions, but without success.

The soldiers were re-enforced by civilian searchers when Col. Finley posted a reward of $50 for the capture and return to the fort of each one of the men.

Private Huff, dressed in full uniform and bearing arms, was patroling the grounds of the fort, having been ordered to keep watch over Schneider and Cowan, who were in civilians clothes.

When the officer of the day ordered roll call at 4 o'clock preparatory to guard mount and the relief of sentries, it was discovered that Private Huff was missing with the prisoners.

It is thought that the men were aided by confederates.

DESERTS BRIDE TWO MONTHS AFTER MARRIAGE

George Tyler, arrested in South Dakota by Sheriff Roberts, says the Racine News of Monday, on the charge of wife desertion and brought back, told a story in the municipal court where he was arraigned and although having entered a plea of guilty, Attorney Walker, who heard the story, asked that it be investigated and this would have been ordered by the court had the district attorney not advised the court and officers that Tyler had again married without having obtained a divorce.

Tyler deserted his wife, whom he married at Waukegan, Aug. 5, 1907, two months after the wedding. He went to Minneapolis, leaving his wife because of trouble with her parents and husband and wife could not agree. Tyler went from Minneapolis to Aberdeen, S. D., where he found employment. He wrote to his wife asking her to come to Aberdeen where he would have a home for her, but Mrs. Tyler refused to leave Racine and writing to Tyler told him not to write her any more.

While at Aberdeen Tyler met his affinity, after the receipt of the letter from his wife, and he wooed and won the lady, but he failed to apply for a divorce. Tyler in court declared that he did not know that he was doing wrong by marrying the Dakota woman, but believed that if his wife refused to come to him and they had separated, he by going into another state could wed again. The district attorney, who had investigated the case, informed the court that Tyler would not have been arrested for desertion had he not been guilty of the crime of bigamy.

CONFIDENCE GAME WORKED IN WAUKEGAN

Philip Zaeger was given a $100 fine and ten seconds to get out of Waukegan Saturday morning, just because he has more than ordinary intelligence and invented what appears to be a new confidence game.

Zaeger is the pioneer in a new game that might be called traveling on one's clothes.

Some time ago the Austrian is said to have joined Battery C for the express purpose of getting a blue uniform with brass buttons.

But the Machiavellian brain of our Phil did not stop there, as when he got the uniform by enlisting the police say he cut off all the buttons and then began to dead beat it on the railroads and street car lines.

The regulation blue was deceiving and Zaeger appeared to the conductors and other train operatives to be one of their own number, as indeed he is said to have told them, so that he was enabled to deadhead it for a long time until found out.

Then the crash came and the man with the brains was jailed.

He is said to have hung about Waukegan for two years with no visible means of support and finally the game frazzled out and he had to go. This is the reward of intellect.

Cigarette-Smoking Russians.

Every male in Russia over 15 years old smokes about 150 cigarettes a week, acccording to a British consular report on Poland and Lithuania. One pound of tobacco suffices for 1,000 cigarettes.

ANOTHER MURDER MYSTERY

Young School Teacher's Body Taken From Fox; Marks of Murder There

RECALL ELDREDGE MYSTERY

Several Bruises and Indications that Blood Vessel Was Bursted Near Back of Head

McHenry county has another mysterious death, that of Ernest Militzer, the young Algonquin school teacher, whose body was taken from three feet of water in Fox river, the searchers being guided to the spot by the peculiar actions of his little dog, which sat persistantly on the bank near the spot. There was considerable speculation as to how a man who was known to be a swimmer could be drowned in three feet of water, and then it was noticed that his eyes indicated concussion. His head was examined and it was found that there were several bruises and that a blood vessel had been broken at the rear of the brain. The lungs did not indicate that he had been drowned. Two theories are held. One is that someone pounded him on the head and then rolled him into the river, the other is that he fell, struck his head heavily and rolled into the water.

Several months ago a game warden named Eldredge living at Richmond met death in the woods near there and it has always been an open question whether he was shot by an enemy or whether he fell down a bank and his revolver, which he wore strapped to him, discharged into his breast by the jar of the fall.

HEIN-ORNSTEIN CO. OPENED NEW STORE ON SATURDAY LAST

The Hein-Ornstein Co. of Waukegan, last Saturday celebrated the grand opening of their new store in the Higley building at that place.

The store is a magnificent one and adds greatly to Waukegan's list of beautiful place, excelling them all in interior decorations and equalling them all in exterior ornamentation.

In front are the two largest plates of rolled plate glass in northern Illinois. In the entrance are the usual swing doors and a mosaic carpeting pleasant to look at.

The two show windows are 8 by 22 feet in dimensions and give the unusually large decorative space of 352 square feet, so that the firm's window artist will not lack opportunity to make a grand showing.

The firm of Hein-Ornstein Company is but three years old in Waukegan and during that time has made a showing not to be equalled in the history of Illinois trade, furnishing Waukegan, Kenosha and Racine with cloak and suit stores for women's wear that are not excelled and indeed not often equalled in New York and Chicago

The two members of the firm by the capable management of one and the scientific salesmanship of the other reduced their business to a matter of poetry and it is often said with truth that it is a delight to buy at the firm's store.

Starting modestly three years ago, Hein-Ornstein Company is now one of Waukegan's really great businesses and the whole county wishes it continued success in its new quarters.

A characteristic incident is reported in Kenosha. The firm decided to abandon its store there because it could not get a show room large enough. In a few days after its announcement it had received seventy-five letters from patrons begging a change of mind. The firm stayed.

Mr. Alec Hein and Mr. Joseph Ornstein, who are valued citizens as well as astute business men, have done more to stimulate home trading than any two score other men' in Waukegan.

They have a capable, highly trained, handsome and intelligent force of helpers who keep up the Hein-Ornstein standard.

MAY CALL OFF LIBERTYVILLE STAKE MEETING

The stake race meet scheduled for Libertyville, beginning July 20, and having one $10,000 event, may be declared off owing to so few enteries. It is said western horsemen are afraid of the easterners. If it is declared off a substitute three day meet will be arranged if possible.

BOAT FIGHTS STORM

Gasoline Boat is Prey to Elements in Squall That Struck Lake off Waukegan

TWO FISHERMEN IN DANGER

Nets and Buoys Thrown Overboard, Gasoline Tank Wrenched and Boat is Paddled to Shelter

With its gasoline tank twisted into all shapes and its main supply pipe from the gasoline tank to the engine broken, the small gasoline fishing launch owned by Koppleman & Son passed through an exciting experience at 6:30 Wednesday morning, when caught out on the lake by the driving northeast blow that caused even the large freight steamers on the lake to run for port.

Koppleman, who with his son Charles had left the port at daybreak, had barely commenced to lift the nets three miles off the port, when the father attracted the boy's attention to a squall that was bearing down upon them.

The lad realized what was before them. With one throw the nets and buoys were overboard. The fish box went with it, causing additional delay and trouble. The engine was quickly reversed and the run for shelter began.

With his engine tearing wide open the run had barely commenced when the staunch little craft was struck by the squall which wrenched the gasoline tank from its fastenings.

With what little gasoline that remained in the feed pipe the engineer sought to make the harbor, but the strong wind from the northeast that had by this time gained in violence carried the craft south of the harbor and behind the south pier. Then the gasoline supply ran out.

The father was then compelled to paddle the little craft in near the south pier and there she was moored and drawn upon the beach at the earliest opportunity, out of the terror of the seas that by this time were breaking over the piers. The storm was one of the queerest ever witnessed by local sailors inasmuch as it was upon them in full fury before they realized what was before them.

Following the narrow escape experienced by the fishermen the tug Erie, towing with it one of the large Great Lakes dump scows loaded with sand and clay, at nine o'clock made an attempt to make its usual run out into the lake or the purpose of dumping its load.

With the dump man on the scow lashed to the gears used in dumping, the run was tackled, with all hands watching the man on the scow, fearing that any moment one of the large breakers might carry him into the lake and add another victim to the already large list recorded this winter.

The tug succeeded finally in gaining the mouth of the harbor and after a half hour's run had only gained a half mile or so. There the crew was compelled to issue order for the man on the dump scow to dump the load. This was done by the man on the scow who by this time realized the dangerous moments through which he had passed.

Parties on shore who watched the crew with marine glasses gave a sigh of relief when they saw the tug again head for port.

This was the only attempt made by the tug crew to go out onto the lake during the day.

HUSBAND AND WIFE BURIED TOGETHER

Christopher Cronke and wife, of Barrington, Lake County, died at their home on Thursday afternoon of last week, their deaths occurring within five hours of each other.

The husband's death occurred first and was said to have been due to appoplexy. His death so preyed upon the mind of his aged companion that in less than five hours she too passed away, her illness being a case of lagripp from which she had been suffering for some time.

Mr. Cronke was 82 years of age and his wife was 79.

The covple are old residents of Lake County, having lived in Barrington for many years. They were very highly regarded and their many friends were much grieved to learn of the double bereavement which has stricken the family.

As their deaths occurred at the same time, almost, so were their funerals held interment of both being made side by side at the same time. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in that section of the county.

ORVIS & EDWARDS DISSOLVE

Edwards Sells Out and Will Open Law Office by Himself

Attorney Clare C. Edwards of Waukegan, who for the past three years has been in partnership with Justin K. Orvis under the firm name of Orvis & Edwards, attorneys at law, Friday evening as the clock tolled out the midnight hour sold out his interest, good will and his outfit to Orvis, the dissolution of partnership to take effect immediately.

Attorney Edwards plans on opening a law office by himself in the near future in either the Coon building, the Wetzel building or in some other well known locality.

Mr. Orvis, according to present plans, will gradually go deeper and deeper into the real estate business, but meanwhile he will also care for his unusually large law practice.

The deal, according to Attorney Edwards, has been pending for the part year, the only difficulty that arose being the disagreement as to the price of the sale.

Attorney Orvis assumes all liabilities incurred in the past by the firm and will still be found in the same old location.

Attorney Edwards will spend the next week or so booming his campaign for the state's attorneyship.

Both attorneys are known for their brilliant legal ability and their partnership has been an interesting and successful one. They are leaders in criminal law practice and masters of their profession. Attorney Edwards has been called to a law chair in the Chicago Law College and will take it next spring.

FOWLER TO RUN AGAINST GEO. D. FOSS?

Is Frank T. Fowler of Waukegan to enter the contest for congress to succeed Congressman Foss?

While various report have been current to that effect even when he first moved to Lake county and Waukegan several years ago, never did anything materialize which lent strength to the possibility but since he moved back to Chicago, there have been various reports that such were his intentions and aspirations. Mr Fowler is now living in the 25th ward Chicago which is a part of Mr Foss' district and he was at the convention on Wednesday at Ravenswood which endorsed Mr. Foss for re-nomination.

while there was a bee buzzing about the hall to the effect that possibly no endorsement of Mr. Foss would be seen, when it came up, it went through by a unanimous vote, not a dissentiug voice being heard. However, the same buzzing sound was heard about the hall from a few of Fowler's intimate friends who were in the hall. He was asked by a reporter what there was to the rumor and to what has been floating about for some time but he would not commit himself one way or the other. He said he had nothing to say on the matter and one might take it that he may be a candidate for Mr. Foss' seat

The primaries for this office are to be held on August 8.—Gazette.

FLIP COINS FOR HONOR OF TYING KNOT

Three justices of the peace flipped coins on Saturday afternoon, for the privilege of unitiug in marriage James Henry Huntoon of Portland, Ore., and Mary Elizabeth Maher, of Chicago, both actors.

The odd man on the toss won and Justice E. V. Orvis performed the ceremony in County Clerk Hendee's office, with the two defeated justices as witnesses.

It all came about when Huntoon applied for a license and Deputy County Clerk Hendee looked up and saw three eager justices before him.

Justice Runyard of Waukegan and Justice Churchill of Grayslake were both in range, while Justice Orvis of Waukegan stood a little to one side. He did not at first wish to enter the competition, but the other two overpersuaded him and the three took coins out of their pockets and flipped them. Orvis was the odd man, the other two getting "heads" and therefore he pronounced the mystic words that united the two vaudeville artists.

The two other justices officiated as witnesses with smiling faces. The way of getting at a decision is the most novel ever made use of by Lake County justices.

Kodol For Dyspepsia has helped thousands of people who have had stomach trouble. This is what one man says of it: "E. C. GARDNER FOUND DEAD

George Brown of Highland Park Disappears and all Night Search is Made

WHOLE CITY IS AROUSED

Horseback Rider in the Early Morning Found Dead Body of Brown in Secluded Spot

His arms folded across his breast, Geo. Brown, 65 years old, gardner for Judge Peter B. Grosscup at Highland Park, was fouud in a coppice three-fourths of a mile south of Highland Park by a searching party at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning.

This was at the end of a search during which the city's fire whistle had been blown, Northwestern Military Academy students had been brought into the chase, and Highland Park citizens of alll rank and occupations had turned out.

Brown was a landscape gardner and lived at 118 South Second street. After leaving the grounds of Federal Judge Grosscup, on the old J. MacGregor Adams place, he was last seen in Waverley ave.

He had been ill and it is suspected that he wandered away during a return of his ailment. His disappearance aroused the city and the people turned out on the search which lasted all night.

When the body was first found foul play was suspected, but the inquest failed to show evidence of this in any way.

A year ago Brown is said to have fallen head first into a manhole and since then it is further reported that he has been weak mentally.

Monday he was seen at a farm house, where he stopped, and when asked where he was going, he stated that he was on his way to look at his property, as it might be the "last time" he would ever see it.

This in the minds of some strengthens a suicide idea which, however, is scoffed at by the majority. He is said to have been well to do.

James Bowden, son of a merchant in the suburb, at 5 o'clock saddled his pony and went out in the woods to resume the search. Beneath the trees he found the body and notified the authorities. The body was taken to an undertakers and an inquest held later.

INJURED IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

James Coyne, who lives near the Hosmer Catholic church was the victim of a very painful accident, and one which will lay him up for some time, the latter part of last week.

On Saturday of last week while out with his team they suddenly became frightened and were soon unmanageable. In some manner the reach of the wagon came apart leaving the rear wheels and the box in the road and thus throwing Coyne forward with considerable force and striking his knee on the king bolt with the result that the knee cap was broken.

Mr. Coyne was taken to a hospital in Chicago Monday afternoon, as it had been found necessary to perform an operation on the knee. Physicians say that while he may recover the use of his leg, the knee will always be stiff.

SYNOPSIS.

Burton H. Barnes, a wealthy American touring Corsica, rescues the young English lieutenant, Edward Gerard Anstruther, and his Corsican bride, Marina, daughter of the Paolis, from the murderous vendetta, understanding that his reward is to be the hand of the girl he loves, Enid Anstruther, sister of the English lieutenant. The four fly from Ajaccio to Marseilles on board the French steamer Constantine. The vendetta pursues and as the quartet are about to board the train for London at Marseilles, Marina is handed a mysterious note which causes her to collapse and necessitates a postponement of the journey. Barnes gets part of the mysterious note and receives letters which inform him that he is marked by the vendetta. He employs an American detective and plans to beat the vendetta at their own game. For the purpose of securing the safety of the women Barnes arranges to have Lady Chartris lease a secluded villa at Nice to which the party is to be taken in a yacht. Barnes and Enid make arrangements for their marriage. The net tightens about Barnes. He receives a note from La Belle Blackwood, the American adventuress. Barnes hears that Elijah Emory, his detective, has been murdered by the Corsicans. He learns that the man supposed to be Corregio, who followed the party on their way to the boat, was Salicetl, a nephew of the count, and that Count Corregio had been in Nice for some time prior to the party's arrival. The count warns Barnes not to marry Enid unless he would have her also involved in the murderous feud. Barnes and Enid are married. Soon after their wedding Barnes' bride disappears. Barnes discovers she has been kidnaped and taken to Corsica. The groom secures a fishing vessel and is about to start in pursuit of his bride's captors when he hears a scream from the villa and rushes back to hear that Anstruther's wife, Marina, is also missing. Barnes is compelled to depart for Corsica without delay, and so he leaves the search for Marina to her husband while he goes to hunt for Enid. Just before Barnes' boat lands on Corsica's shore Marina is discovered hiding in a corner of the vessel. She explains her action by saying she has come to help Barnes rescue his wife from the Corsicans. When Barnes and Marina arrive in Corsica he is given a note written by Enid informing him that the kidnaping is for the purpose of entrapping Barnes, so the vendetta may kill him.

CHAPTER XII.

The Mountain Chalet.

Forced to a more moderate pace, the two journey up the winding road between some cornfields made red by poppies. Soon after they pass into the wooded hill lands, their path bordered by myrtles and arbutus.

After a little, the way grows wilder, the hills much steeper, and climbing the lofty Colle di San Antonio they can look down upon hill vistas, beautifully wooded, that descend to the distant sea. In the sunlit gleam of the far-off water, Barnes, using his field glasses, sees the yacht lying alone at anchor. "Graham has sent back the fishing smack," he says.

"Then thank the Virgin," cries Marina, "another letter is going to my husband telling him his disobedient wife is trying to save his sister."

They descend sharply into the little valley of the Liamone, and enter the village of Vico, whose inn is now welcoming the first summer visitors from Ajaccio.

Here Marina says: "'Twould be wrong if I sent not a telegram to my anxious spouse." So they dismount at the little telegraph office peculiar to Corsican villages. As they slip in, a countryman slouches out and mounting a horse rides off up the main street. Her message dispatched, Marina coming from the office, says: "How hurriedly that fellow went away."

"You think he was looking for us?" asks Barnes, as he places her on her pony.

"Perhaps; Bernardo is astute. He may guess that his message to you brought you after him by water and that you would find the yacht."

"Then after him!" says Burton, and turning more to the east they follow a rapid stream, passing the Sulphur Baths of Guagno, where they can see the diligence depositing patients at its hospital for rheumatics.

They have not overtaken the man, but no one has passed them on the road, their pace has been so rapid. The peasants they have seen, so many of them carrying guns that Barnes thinks he is in the Rocky Mountains, have received the usual greetings in the patois of the country from Marina, her escort wisely keeping his sombrero pulled down over his eyes and saying nothing. But now a farmer, pausing, says: "Girl, you and your man had better not go beyond Guagno. Last night the two accursed bandits, Rochini and his mate, killed Nicolo, the sheep grower, up at his house by the lake, and carried off his daughter."

"Thank you for your advice," answers Marina politely. She glances at Barnes, but he scarcely heeds. He is urging his pony toward the mountain pass through which Enid must now be journeying.

"Who is this Rochini?" asks Barnes, to take Mrs. Anstruther's thoughts to happier things.

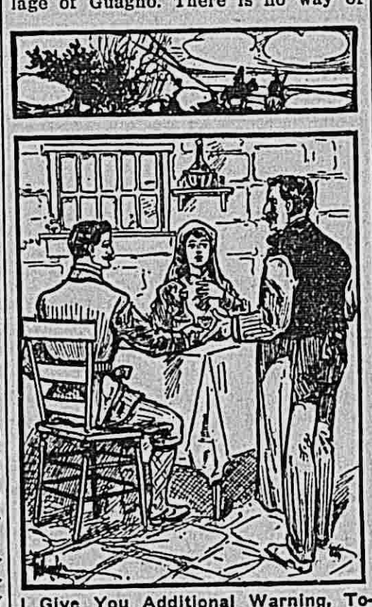

"He and his fellows are the only bandits of which Corsica is not proud," answers the girl, savagely. "This wretch with his underlings murders men for money. Other bandits only kill for hate or to escape capture by the gendarmes. Also this Rochini drags shrieking women to his lair, while other bandits doff their hats to ladies."

Then as they ride along the Corsican girl gives Mr. Barnes some curious information about bandits.

"This murderous Rochini is not of our commune; he has been driven from Rotondo by the farmers because of his outrages and came over to Del Oro," she remarks, excitedly. "Our own Bocognano bandits, the brave Bellacoscia," Marina's tone is proud, "whose family name is Bonelli, only fled to the mountains to escape pursuit from our cruel gendarmes, because, forsooth, the elder Antonio killed Marc' Angeli, who dared to marry the girl upon whom he had set his heart. The younger, Giacomo, because he would not endure the French conscription, so he slew the brigadier and his men who came to arrest him. Still Antonio Bonelli, when the Teutons overran France, offered to go over and fight the German Von Moltke with his 500 Bellacoscia—brothers, sons, grandsons and nephews—if they would give him safe conduct from arrest. At first Monsieur Gambetta accepted, then he refused, fearing there might be a new Bonaparte among these Corsicans to again save France and rule the country."

"Oh, we are devoted to the Bellacoscia," she continues fervidly. "Every boy by the wayside gives them warning of the gendarmes; every child picking flowers in the mountains tells them of the coming of the brigadiers who would capture or slay them. Though many men and women, some of gentle blood, are placed in prison for aiding them, the authorities never receive information from their lips. But these wretches, Rochini and Romano, are abhorred by all, and blessings would be showered on any who might bring their bodies into Bocognano."

All this has been said as they hurried through the dust and sun for three more miles. They enter the village of Guagno. There is no way of avoiding the hamlet; it stands almost at the entrance of the deep gorge between the two great mountains—besides, the ponies need rest.

"I Give You Additional Warning, Tonight You Must Stay in My Inn."

"It would be better if we were not seen here," suggests Marina, "though the inn looks comfortable."

"And you must both rest and eat," remarks Barnes, who has noticed that his fragile companion, unaccustomed to the severe exercise of horseback travel in the hot sun and stifling dust, is somewhat fatigued.

They ride up to the auberge, dismount and give their ponies to the care of a Corsican boy, who leads them away.

Entering, they are met by the loquacious landlord, who tells them, as they demand a hurried meal, that business is not very brisk, the season being too early for many invalids at the baths, besides all travellers are kept from the mountains beyond by fear of Rochini and Romano.

"May the curse of God rest on them—they spoil my business even down here," says the hotel man savagely as he goes to bring the food.

"I do not think you had better go with me farther," remarks Barnes seriously.

"What, stand back because a murderer threatens the way to Enid?" cries Marina. "Besides, you can shoot your pistol."

"Then may God curse me if I let harm come to you for your devotion to my wife," returns the American with grateful eyes.

"Then I'm safe," says the Corsican girl simply, who has supreme faith in the deadly marksmanship of her escort.

From the little garden outside, the conversation of two rustics drifts in to them. One is apparently a local wool buyer, the other a shepherd from the neighboring mountain, who is bargaining with him for his shearing.

A moment later their host places the dinner in front of them. "Here are trout from our Liamone, a filch of mouflon killed on Rotondo and some chianti made from the vines outside. Real mouflon, real chianti, besides chestnuts from my own grove!" he remarks proudly, as he arranges their knives and forks.

"You have also a few visitors, I presume, to eat them?" queries Marina, sympathetically.

"Oh, none to-day; there are not enough invalids at the baths; the season is too early. Besides, young Salicetl didn't stop here with his party, but hurried on three hours ago. Does that young statesman expect to get the vote of Vincenzo, the landlord? Not even a drink of wine did he buy. But the reprobate has an eye for beauty if not for political influence. A yellow-haired girl was with him, though his followers kept so close about her I could not see her face. But I give you additional warning. Tonight you must stay in my inn. Toward the mountains there is another bandit, an extra one."

"An extra bandit!" Barnes opens his eyes.

"How do you know that?" asks Marina.

"How? Why, even the accursed Rochini and his fellow, who murder men and seize women, never steal from me, who fearing their knives give them wine and warning of the gendarmes; but this new fellow sneaks down at night and eats my chickens. May Satan take him, he has the appetite of a table d'hote!"

"Nevertheless, we must risk the unprofessional chicken thief and go to the mountains," says Marina determinedly, as she goes away, attended by mine host, to make preparations for her departure.

Barnes, having five minutes for a whiff, produces his cigar case, but some words entering from the two rustics amid the vines of the garden outside, cause him to forget even his last cigar.

Their trade being closed, they are now discussing local news. "Diavolo," remarks the wool trader, "did you meet young Salicetl on the road?"

"Aye, that I did, three miles above, near the waterfall. To me he said: 'Good Luigi, shall I have your vote for deputy?' 'That you will,' said I, 'great Salicetl, when you perform your oath of vendetta against the Americano who came to Bocognano and by De Belloc's soldiers killed the man who would have been your father-in-law.' 'Then I shall have it,' he cried. 'Just wait here for a couple of hours, and you'll see it done.' But I had to meet you to sell my wool, besides I remembered Rochini and his murderous gun, and so I came along."

"Cospetto, if Salicetl does it, he has my vote also!" cries the wool trader. "The crafty politician must have the Americano trapped somehow. It was rumored that the devil fled with the Englishman whom Mademoiselle Paoli wedded, though he had slain her brother. Santos, may death come to a girl who for lust betrays her race."

To this Barnes listens impatiently but seriously.

"This political hustler wants to sacrifice me on their altar of vengeance, so as to draw their votes," cogitates Barnes savagely. "By the Eternal, he shall have an ox at his barbecue who will disagree with his stomach!"

There is a peculiar glint in the American's eyes as, five minutes later, he places Marina carefully upon her pony, and they leave the inn. He now asks almost lightly: "By the bye, Madame Anstruther, do you know a waterfall some three miles up this path?" For all traces of a wagon road have ended at Guagno, leaving only a little bridle path that runs up the foaming Liamone, which, contracted in its banks, has become a torrent.

Marina thinks a moment; then says: "Oh, yes; I remember a mountain trail often travelled as a girl. But it is very steep."

"Would you kindly show it to me when we come to it?"

QUITE A NEAT EVASION.

Pastor Could Not Be Drawn Into Giving Direct Testimony.

The wealthy parishioner had with him his pastor, and miles of road were thrown into clouds of dust by the plunging automobile. "Halt!" commanded the officer, but no more attention was given to him than to the flitting telephone poles. Over those poles, however, sped a message, and at the next crossroads a barrier was encountered and also another representative of the law. "Not only did he break the speed law," complained the constable, when the party had assembled in court, but he also told me to go to the devil." "You lie," thundered the wealthy parishioner, "I never used such language." "We must protect our officers from profanity," intoned the justice. Then turning to the clergyman. "Perhaps this gentleman, who will not make a misstatement, will tell us whether or not the devil was mentioned in this controversy." "Your honor," pleaded the clergyman, "I and my brethren refer to his satanic majesty so frequently that any additional allusion to him would not impress itself upon me sufficiently to remember the incident."

Wanted the Worth of His Money.

"All we can afford to give you,miss," said the trustee of school district No. 16 to the young woman who had applied for the position of teacher, "is $45 a month.' "At that figure, of course, you wouldn't expect me to teach any fads," she said. "Fads?" echoed the trustee, taken slightly aback; "why—h'm—yes, if you can teach it we'll want that, too." "But if it isn't in the curriculum——" "You may as well understand, miss, that we ain't throwin' any money away. The $45 a month is to pay for the whole thing—fads, crickalum and everything else that's goin'."—Chicago Tribune.

French Writers and Sports.

The present literary generation prides itself on its good health, and gives itself freely up to sport. Among those of our writers who are under 35 years of age, one can scarcely be found who does not practise, in the most assiduous manner, one or more sports.—Paris La Vie Heureuse.

GOOD WAY TO COOK MUTTON.

Recipe That Is Sent to Us from English Kitchens.

Take all the fat out of a loin of mutton; also off the outside if too fat. Remove the skin. Joint it at every bone.

Mix a small nutmeg, grated, with a little pepper and salt, bread crumbs and minced herbs. Dip the steaks into the yolks of three eggs and sprinkle the above mixture all over them.

Place the steaks together as they were before they were cut asunder and put in the oven to bake. Baste with butter and the juice which runs from the meat; sprinkle more of the seasoning over.

When cooked lay it on a hot platter. Have half pint of rich gravy ready besides that in the dish and add two spoonfuls of catsup, rub down a teaspoonful of flour with it. Let this boil, and pour it over the mutton, first skimming off the fat. The meat should be hot while the gravy is being prepared.

Rhode Island Clam Chowder.

Three two-inch cubes fat salt pork, one good sized sliced onion, three-fourths cup water, four cups potato cubes, one quart clams, one pint boiling water, one cup stewed and strained tomato, one-fourth level teaspoon soda, one pint hot milk, two level tablespoons butter, salt and pepper to taste, crackers.

Cook the pork, onion and three-fourths cup water for 20 minutes, then strain and reserve the water. Parboil the potatoes for six minutes and drain. Add the potatoes to the water reserved from the pork and onion, and add the liquor drained from the clams, also the hard part of the clams, chopped fine, and the boiling water. Cook until the potatoes are tender and add the tomato, soda, remaining clams, milk and butter. When very hot add the salt and pepper and crackers, moistened in cold milk.

Egg Sauce for Fish.

Cod is one of the cheapest fishes for boiling purposes, but served with a properly made sauce it becomes a real delicacy. Melt one tablespoon of butter in a saucepan, but do not allow it to brown. Add one tablespoon of flour and stir until smooth, flavor with half teaspoon of salt and one-fourth teaspoon of white pepper. Have ready one cup of hot milk, add this gradually, stir until it reaches the consistency of thick cream, then simmer very gently without stirring for three minutes. Add two hard-boiled eggs, chopped or diced, and, just as you remove from fire, one teaspoon of lemon juice and a tablespoon of chopped parsley. Do not allow it to boil after you add the lemon juice, and drain your fish absolutely dry before pouring the sauce over it, otherwise your sauce will become watery.

Remedy for Chapped Hands.

Anyone who is troubled at all with chapped hands can find relief if, after washing their hands before wiping them, they will put a little of the following formula into palm of hands and rub well into hands and wrists, then wipe them thoroughly dry, and after one or two usings the reward will be a soft, white hand. Put part of mixture in a toilet bottle on dressing table, the rest to be kept handy at sink to use after doing anything to wet the hands for a time. When your hands are once well it need not be used so often. Get 20 cents' worth best bay rum and five cents' worth of glycerin at drug store, then buy two lemons and mix the strained juice with the other liquids, then use.

Brown Betty with Peaches.

Prepare a pint of fine stale bread crumbs and stir into them one-third cup of melted butter. Put a layer of the crumbs into the bottom of a baking dish, add a layer of canned peaches drained and cut in pieces. Sprinkle them with a bit of grated lemon rind and a little lemon juice, also a few grains of salt. Add another layer of crumbs and peaches, seasoning as before, then cover with crumbs. Cover and bake for 30 minutes. Thicken the peach syrup with a little cornstarch diluted with a little cold water and flavor with lemon juice.

Takes Place of Water Bag.

Electric appliances are entering into family service at a surprising rate. Hot water bags are superseded by an electric sheet of a given size, exceedingly thin and pliable. It may be purchased at an electrician's supply shop. This thin metal sheet may be heated to three different degrees and thus proves invaluable in the sickroom. The pliability of the metal makes it possible also that this conductor of heat may be changed to all parts of the body.—Vogue.

Silver Polisher.

A piece of new Wilton or Axminster carpet makes the best of silver polishers. Take a piece of wood, the size of a blackboard rubber, cushion it with some cotton wadding on the flat sides, tack the carpet over it, and you have a handy "buffer" for silver that cannot be equaled. The carpet can be used alone with good results, but is not so handy, and if used vigorously it is hard on the fingers.—Good Housekeeping.

Keep Oil Can Corked.

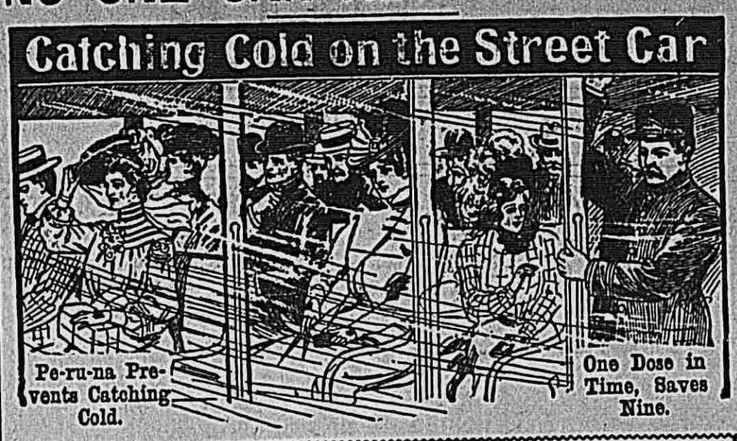

Lamp oil that has been exposed to the air will not burn brightly, and will form a crust on the lampwick after it is lighted. It is always advisable to keep the oil can tightly corked.

Buttered Carrots.

Parboil three cups of carrots, cut in cubes, ten minutes and drain; cover with fresh water and cook until tender. Melt two tablespoons of butter and two of lemon juice and pour over them just before serving.

NO ONE CAN ALWAYS AVOID

Catching Cold on the Street Car

Pe-ru-na Prevents Catching Cold.

One Dose in Time, Saves Nine.

Many people persist in riding on the street cars, insufficiently protected by clothing.

They start out perhaps in the heat of the day and do not feel the need of wraps.

The rapid moving of the car cools the body unduly. When they board the car perhaps they are slightly perspiring. When the body is in this condition it is easily chilled. This is especially true when a person is sitting.

Beginning a street car ride in the middle of the day and ending it in the evening almost invariably requires extra wraps, but people do not observe these precautions, hence they catch cold.

Colds are very frequent in the Spring on this account, and as the Summer advances, they do not decrease. During the Spring months, no one should think of riding on the car without being provided with a wrap.

A cold caught in the Spring is liable to last through the entire Summer. Great caution should be observed at this season against exposure to cold. During the first few pleasant days of Spring, the liability of catching cold is great.

No wonder so many people acquire muscular rheumatism and catarrhal diseases during this season.

However, in spite of the greatest precautions, colds will be caught.

At the appearance of the first symptom, Peruna should be taken according to directions on the bottle, and continued until every symptom disappears.

Do not put it off. Do not waste time by taking other remedies. Begin at once to take Peruna and continue taking it until you are positive that the cold has entirely disappeared. This may save you a long and perhaps serious illness later on.

Bad Effects From Cold.

Mr. M. J. Deutsch, Secretary Building Material Trades Council, 151 Washington St., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I have found your medicine to be unusually efficacious in getting rid of bad effects from cold, and more especially in driving away all symptoms of catarrh, with which I am frequently troubled.

"The relief Peruna gives in catarrhal troubles alone is well worth the price per bottle. I have used the remedy for several years now."

Spells of Coughing.

Mrs. C. E. Long, writes from Atwood, Colorado, as follows:

"When I wrote you for advice my little three-year-old girl had a cough that had been troubling her for four months. She took cold easily, and would wheeze and have spells of coughing that would sometimes last for a half hour.

"Now we can never thank you enough for the change you have made in our little one's health. Before she began taking your Peruna she suffered everything in the way of cough, colds and croup, but now she has taken not quite a bottle of Peruna, and is well and strong as she has ever been in her life."

Pe-ru-na for Colds.

Mr. James Morrison, 68 East 16th St., Paterson, N. J., writes:

"I have given Peruna a fair trial, and I find it to be just what you claim it to be. I cannot praise it too highly. I have used two bottles in my family for colds, and everything imaginable. I can safely say that your medicine is the best I have ever used."

THE MEAN MAN.

"I believe," his wife angrily declared, "that if I were dead you would be married again inside of a year."

"Oh, no," the mean man replied, "you are mistaken. Try me and I'll prove it."

GIRL WAS DELIRIOUS

With Fearful Eczema—Pain, Heat, and Tingling Were Excruciating—Cuticura Acted Like Magic.

"An eruption broke out on my daughter's chest. I took her to a doctor, and he pronounced it to be eczema of a very bad form. He treated her, but the disease spread to her back, and then the whole of her head was affected, and all her hair had to be cut off. The pain she suffered was excruciating, and with that and the heat and tingling her life was almost unbearable. Occasionally she was delirious and she did not have a proper hour's sleep for many nights. The second doctor we tried afforded her just as little relief as the first. Then I purchased Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, and before the Ointment was three-quarters finished every trace of the disease was gone. It really seemed like magic. Mrs. T. W. Hyde, Brentwood, Essex, England, Mar. 8, 1907."

Her Kick.

"John, I wish you would not be quite so polite, and so considerate of me when we are in company."

"Why, dear, I want them—the whole world—to see how I love you."

"That's all right but they—the whole world—thinks I've got you scared."—Houston Post.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS.

ANTIOCH, ILLINOIS.

A REPUBLICAN NEWSPAPER.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY
A. B. JOHNSON, - Editor and Proprietor

By Mail, One Dollar per Year, in Advance

Telephone, Antioch No. 402.

"The question is not whether the republicans will carry Ohio. The question is only how large the republican majority in the state will be." This is the reply made by Representative Nicholas Longworth of Ohio to statements about political conditions in the Buckeye State, put in circulation recently.

A delegation of young and progressive Sioux Indians from the Standing Rock and Cheyenne Indian reservations were recently presented to the President by Commissioner Leupp, of the Indian Bureau. These Indians, many of whom are well-to-do through their own energies, were in Washington to urge the opening of at least half of the two reservations which they represented to settlement and the allotment of lands to them. If the bills providing for opening should go through congress, about 3,200,000 acres would be put upon the market, leaving about the same number for the Indians.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Home of Swamp-Root.

Don t make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Money Makes Egotists.

Money is a sort of creation, and gives the acquirer even more than the possessor an imagination of his own power, and tends to make him idolize self.—Cardinal Newman.

That languid, lifeless feeling that comes with spring and early summer, is quickly changed to feeling of buoyancy and energy by the judicious use of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is a genuine tonic to tired, rundown nerves, and but a few doses is needed to satisfy the user that Dr. Shoop's Restorative is actually reaching that tired spot. The indoor life of winter nearly always leads to sluggish bowels, and to sluggish circulation in general. The customary lack of exercise and outdoor air ties up the liver, stagnates the kidneys, and oftimes weakens the Heart's action. Use Dr. Shoop's Restorative a few weeks and all will be changed. A few days test will tell you that you are using the right remedy. You will easily and surely note the change from day to day. Sold by J. H. Swan.

The company will make butter at these places instead, and will pay ten cents per hundred less than their price for these six months, and will also pay according to test.—Burlington Free Press.

News reached here on Friday evening of last week of the sudden death of Miss LaVerne Babcock, of Libertyville, a neice of Jas. H. Swan of this place. Miss Babcock is a prominent young lady of Libertyville and has a large number of friends at this place, having at different times assisted Mr. Swan in his store here. Her death was very sudden and unexpected. Wednesday while on her way to visit relatives at Milwaukee she was taken seriously ill on the train. Immediately upon her arrival there a physician was summoned and in a short time she seemed much better and attended a theater that evening. Upon her return she was again taken worse and it was found necessary to take her at once to a hospital where the best medical aid was employed but on Friday she passed away, peritonitis being the cause of her death. The funeral was held at Libertyville on Monday.

LUCKY BEAN SAVED SAILOR

Providence Placed Talisman in His Hand When He Was Thrown Unconscious Among Cannibals.

Of all the many mysterious products of the ocean, none can compare with the sea-bean. Scientists are divided as to its origin, as no one has ever seen the shrub or vine on which it grows, and it is never found save when the bosom of the deep has been rent by a hard storm, when the sea-beans, cast forth from some mysterious depth, are found scattered along the beach, derelicts of the tide. There are numerous varieties, large and small, and some are very rare, especially the large liver bean, and the banded bean. The savage tribes which inhabit the South Seas regard them as almost sacred, and look upon the lucky possessor of one of the rare varieties as particularly favored by the gods. Dusky belles, having in their possession these rare products of the deep, will fight for their treasure against all comers, as they believe that the sea-bean gives them unusual power, especially in love, and that any man on whom their affections are set, must yield to their charms if they but touch him with the lucky bean. One touch of the bean binds their lover to them forever.

Mr. Leak, manager of the Stanislaus county exhibit cars from California, is the fortunate possessor of a rare specimen which has a thrilling history which would seem to prove the superstition of the savages of the South Sea Islands. It was given to him by a sailor friend, who was wrecked in a mighty storm which swept the tropical seas. The sailor, unconscious and nearly dead, was washed ashore on an island, and when he recovered his senses he found himself surrounded by a crowd of savage men and women. They were cannibals, and his fate would undoubtedly have been a horrible one, but suddenly a native saw grasped in the sailor's hand, one of the rarest of the sea-beans. Where it came from and how it happened that he held it when he was cast upon the beach he never knew, but the superstitious natives looked upon him as one especially protected by the gods, and the bean proved to him a lucky one indeed for it undoubtedly saved him from a terrible fate. Some years ago Mr. Leak befriended this old sailor in San Francisco, and as a reward this lucky bean was presented to him, and he values it highly. "I am not superstitious," said Mr. Leak in speaking of this bean, which he has had made into a watch charm, "but I have not had any very bad luck since I was presented with the lucky bean by my old sailor friend Seth."

Death Was On His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris, Skippers, of Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at J. H. Swan's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trail bottle free.

TO SUPPRESS "REDS"

SPECIAL MESSAGE ON ANARCHISTS FROM PRESIDENT.

ADDITIONAL LAWS NEEDED

Senate Passes Employers' Liability Bill Without Change — House Makes Progress Despite Democratic Filibuster.

Washington.—Suppression of anarchy as the greatest question before the nation was called to the attention of congress by President Roosevelt in a special message. The executive submits what has been done under existing statutes, but says there should be further legislation.

The anarchist is declared the enemy of all mankind and no paper, published here or abroad, propagating anarchism should be permitted to circulate in the mails, the president declares.

This message, containing only about 100 words, is one of the shortest Mr. Roosevelt has transmitted to congress. With the message be transmitted a report reviewing the legal phases of the question by Attorney General Bonaparte.

Message of the President.

The message of the president follows:

"To the Senate and House of Representatives: I herewith submit a letter from the department of justice, which explains itself. Under this opinion, I hold that existing statutes give the president the power to prohibit the postmaster general from being used as an instrument in the commission of crime; that is, to prohibit the use of the mails for the advocacy of murder, arson and treason.

"I shall act upon such construction. Unquestionably, however, there should be further legislation by congress in this matter. When compared with the suppression of anarchy, every other question sinks into insignificance. The anarchist is the enemy of humanity, the enemy of all mankind, and his is a deeper degree of criminality than any other. No immigrant is allowed to come to our shores if he is an anarchist; and no paper published here or abroad should be permitted circulation in this country, if it propagates anarchistic opinions.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Senate Passes Liability Bill.

The employers' liability bill, recently passed by the house, was passed by the senate Thursday without amendment, so that it is ready to go to the president for his approval.

The scope of the bill is limited to common carriers by railroad. The senate adjourned at 5:50 o'clock until Monday.

House Busy, Despite Filibuster.

Three times in the house the Democrats caught the Republicans "napping" and forced them to produce a quorum. On one other occasion a vote by tellers disclosed the absence of a quorum but Speaker Cannon peremptorily applied the Reed rule and declared a quorum to be present. In doing so he had a brief but lively clash with Mr. Williams.

Notwithstanding repeated roll calls, progress was made in the transaction of public business. Both the army and the fortifications appropriation bills were sent to conference; the senate bill to increase the efficiency of the revenue cutter service was, with Democratic help, passed, and the bill to promote the safe transportation in interstate commerce of explosives was considered. It will be finally disposed of Friday.

The Democrats prevented the adoption of the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill and caused it to be sent back to conference.

"OPEN SHOP" ON GREAT LAKES.

Vessel Owners Adopt Policy of Ignoring Unions.

Cleveland, O.—The "open shop" policy will be adhered to by vessel owners, in the operation of boats upon the great lakes this season. A stand of this character in dealing with organized labor was unanimously agreed to at the annual meeting of the Lake Carriers' association here Thursday.

The rule will be put into operation at once and will affect upward of 40,000 men. Whether the plan adopted by the boat owners will be opposed by the various unions is unknown. None of their representatives was present at the meeting.

FIERCE RIOT IN PENSACOLA

IMPORTATION OF STRIKE BREAKERS CAUSES BATTLE.

Street Car Men from St. Louis Are Attacked and Fifteen of Them Are Beaten.

Pensacola, Fla.—The bringing of a carload of strike breakers from St. Louis Friday afternoon by the Pensacola Electric company was the signal for rioting and disorder which resulted in the injury of 15 of the imported men.

No sooner had the strike breakers arrived and started for the car sheds than a fight occurred between them and the sympathizers of the union men and from the corner of Palafox and Wright streets, where the first battle occurred, there was a continual riot in which bricks, bottles and shells were hurled at the strike breakers, and in turn the latter fired shots and used heavy sticks and bricks. For over an hour the riot continued, the strike breakers gradually getting nearer to the car barns, but before they reached there 15 had been wounded.

When near the car barns, so fierce was the onslaught on the body of imported men, that they separated and fled, 30 running into a negro's house, while the remainder reached the car barn and barricaded the doors. The 30 men in the house barricaded the doors and it took the police over an hour to disperse the mob and remove the men to places of safety.

All night there were great crowds on the streets.

The mayor has issued a proclamation closing all saloons and the board of public safety has ordered the marshal to swear in a sufficient number of deputies to quell the disturbance.

Seventy strike breakers were marched to the city jail, where they were kept in safety all night.

Benjamin Commons, vice-president of the International Association of Street Railway Employes, made an address, urging the strikers to disperse and go to their homes quietly.

DETROIT JURY IS SCORED.

Judge Angered by Acquittal of Self-Confessed Murderer.

Detroit, Mich.—"This is one of the vilest miscarriages of justice that has ever been heard of in this community," said Judge Phelan in the recorder's court Thursday afternoon, when a jury found 18-year-old Percy Bowin of Woodville, Ont., not guilty of the brutal murder on January 7 of 63-year-old Mrs. Cornelia Welch, proprietress of a disreputable place on Congress street east which Bowin had frequented.

Bowin had admitted his guilt and made a detailed confession of how he killed the old woman and stole and pawned her diamonds. This confession, signed by Bowin, was placed in evidence. Then Bowin took the stand and repudiated it absolutely, saying that Capt. McDonnell induced him to make it by talking of the strong case against him and promising to help him to a pardon later. This the captain and other officers denied absolutely. The police offered a great deal of evidence to confirm the statements in Bowin's confession.

OFFERED MONEY FOR MURDER.

Serious Evidence Against Thomas McGonnigle and Mrs. Burnett.

Richmond, Mo.—In the trial here Friday of Thomas McGonnigle and Mrs. Jane Burnett, accused of the murder of Mrs. Margaret McGonnigle, Thomas Bailey, 21 years old, son of a farmer, said that in 1907 Thomas McGonnigle offered him $150 if he would kill Mrs. McGonnigle. Bailey said he refused to do so, and that McGonnigle then threatened to kill him if he revealed what he had said.

Mrs. Fannie Davis testified that Tom McGonnigle and his sister, Mrs. Burnett, had offered her $50 to kill Mrs. McGonnigle. Thomas, she testified, had fixed a bottle of wine with poison in it to give to Mrs. McGonnigle, but witness had destroyed the wine. Then they wanted her to shoot Mrs. McGonnigle, she testified, and leave the revolver and a hat at the house to give the impression that a man had killed her. At another time they gave her some poisoned cake to give to her. Mrs. Jane Burnett, the witness said, had told her that she would kill Mrs. McGonnigle.

Calls for Paper Trust Facts.

Washington.—Wednesday's session of the house will go down as one of the stormiest in its history. The sum total of the day's proceedings was the adoption of several additional rules to further check the Democratic filibuster and the passing of the two resolutions introduced by Speaker Cannon calling on the department of justice and the department of commerce and labor for certain information regarding the so-called paper trust. The naval appropriation bill was reported to the house.

Saved from Fire, But Dies.

Chippewa Falls, Wis.—Karl Sorenson, who was rescued from the burning Northwestern hospital Saturday, died Sunday. He was on the operating table and under the influence of ether when the fire was discovered.

SYSTEM FROM SEA TO SEA

LAST LINK IN HARRIMAN'S BIG CHAIN ALMOST DONE.

Opening of Illinois Central's Birmingham Division April 19 Completes Trans-Continental Line.

Birmingham, Ala. — The official announcement by the Illinois Central that the new Birmingham division will be opened for traffic April 19 calls attention to the completion of the link in the great Harriman transcontinental route, for by controlling the Union Pacific, Illinois Central and Central of Georgia, this system will extend from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

In addition to supplying the last link in this chain, the opening of the Haleyville branch will give the Illinois Central an inlet to the great coal and iron fields of Alabama with their immense annual tonnage.

The Central of Georgia terminals here connect with those of the Illinois Central, thus giving a direct connection from all Illinois Central points with the sea at Savannah over the Central of Georgia. Connection of the Illinois Central with the Union Pacific thus gives a complete system from one ocean to the other. The connection is expected to benefit the southeastern states and to increase Savannah's importance as a seaport, for in addition to making it the terminal for much of Alabama's coal and iron, it will receive much of the grain and other traffic of the Mississippi valley.

The Mobile & Ohio will open its new Birmingham branch on April 20 and present plans contemplate having the first trains over both lines reach Birmingham the same day. To this end the commercial organizations of Birmingham have planned an elaborate reception.

The entrance of the Illinois Central has been accomplished by certain traffic arrangements and by the building of an entire new line from Corinth, Miss., to Haleyville, Ala., a distance of 80 miles.

Electric Car Kills Five.

Chicago. — Four women were instantly killed and one man fatally injured when a west-bound Aurora, Elgin and Chicago electric car struck a carriage two miles west of Maywood, a suburb, Wednesday afternoon. The man, who was driver of the carriage, died four hours later in the Maywood Union hospital without recovering consciousness.

Mother and Children Drown.

Huntington, W. Va.—Mrs. William Adkins and her two young children were drowned Friday when their residence slipped into Guyandotte river. The house was located on the river bank which had been largely undermined during the recent floods.

Mail Robbery at Janesville.

Janesville, Wis.—Two mail sacks with eastern states mail were stolen from a depot platform here Thursday night. The sacks were found ripped open and part of the contents gone.

CONGRESS MAY QUIT MAY 9.

Representative Watson of Indiana Predicts Early Adjournment.

Washington.—That the present session of congress will adjourn on or about Saturday, May 9, was the prediction Sunday night of Representative James E. Watson of Indiana, Republican "whip" of the house. Mr. Watson bases this prediction upon information he has gathered as the result of a careful survey of the situation in the two houses of congress.

During the past few days Mr. Watson has conferred with the leaders at both ends of the capitol in regard to adjournment, and all of them are anxious for an early date. He thinks there is ample time between now and May 9 for the completion of the legislative program. The principal measures in the house which remain to be disposed of are the naval appropriation bill, the sundry civil appropriation bill, the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, the military academy bill and the Aldrich currency measure.

BAD FLOODS IN SOUTHWEST.

One Man Killed and Traffic Impeded in Missouri.

Joplin, Mo.—One man killed, railroad traffic impeded, cave-ins on the electric and St. Louis & San Francisco lines near Joplin and mines in the Badger-Peacock district inundated, are some of the features of the flood that is sweeping southwest Missouri. Levi Sevier, a miner, was drowned in the Iroquois mine.

Near Monett, the overflow from Spring river washed out the St. Louis & San Francisco tracks and trains are delayed. The tracks of the Missouri Pacific are washed out near Granby. Portions of Carthage are inundated. The big dam of the Spring River Water company at Varck, Kan., is holding its own against the great volume of water that is pressing against it.

GOVERNOR OF GALICIA SLAIN.

Count Potocki of Austria Assassinated by Ruthenian Student.

Lemberg, Austria Hungary.—Count Andreas Potocki, governor of the Austrian Polish province of Galicia, was assassinated Sunday afternoon by a Ruthenian student, Mieroslap Sjczynski, while giving an audience to a delegation of students. The assassin fired three shots from a revolver, all of which took effect. The governor died soon afterwards, but first asked his secretary to inform his majesty at once. "Tell him," said the dying man, "I was his most faithful servant."

Iron Chain Deal Invalid.

Lincoln, Neb.—Dr. E. C. Spinney of Chicago must pay back the sum of $7,800 received from the Iron Chain, a Minnesota organization. So declared the supreme court in a decision rendered Friday. Dr. Spinney is at the head of a fraternal society, the Bankers Union. This organization took over the Iron Chain in 1901. At that time the home office of the Bankers Union was located at Omaha. The Nebraska court holds that the purchase of the Minnesota society was not valid.

Lynching Follows Assault.

Fort Worth, Tex. — Three hours after he had attempted a criminal assault on May Morris, a 12-year-old white girl, at Longview, Albert Fields, a negro, was arrested and fully identified. After he made a full confession he was taken to the courthouse yard, a rope placed around his neck, a horse driven from under him and he was left hanging.

"Roosevelt Way" Is Planned.

Denver, Col.—A project of uniting a series of connecting roads, making them as one road from the Atlantic to the Pacific, as nearly straight as possible and under one name—the Roosevelt Way—is well under way. There will be at least 550 miles, from the mountains in Colorado to St. Joseph, Mo., an absolutely straight line. The project has already been indorsed by the governors of three states, the commercial bodies of five cities and the leading automobile manufacturers of the country.

RELIEF IS PROMPT

MUCH MONEY BEING RAISED FOR CHELSEA SUFFERERS.

LOSS PUT AT $5,575,000

City Authorities Decide to Rebuild the Flame-Swept Area—Comparatively Little Suffering Experienced.

Boston.—From the embers of Sunday's conflagration in Chelsea there arose Monday a well-organized movement for aid and relief of the 10,000 homeless, a counting of the cost by insurance companies, whose representatives placed their losses at three millions and a half, and a determination by the city authorities to rebuild the 350 acres swept by the flames where stood, before the fire, property valued at nearly $6,000,000.

No further deaths were reported, and of the injured persons taken to the various hospitals only two were believed to be in a critical condition. The three bodies which were taken to the morgue in Boston Sunday night remained unidentified.

Revised figures indicated that the losses were divided, according to the various classes of property destroyed, as follows:

Churches and schools	$ 525,000
Public buildings	475,000
Factories, business blocks and contents	825,000
Dwelling houses	3,750,000
Total	$5,575,000

The insurance of $3,500,000 is divided among about 80 companies.

There was comparatively little suffering reported among the fire victims. So prompt and efficient was the relief work that practically no one was without shelter during the night. Monday the relief work was taken up by those who handled the Massachusetts fund for San Francisco sufferers.

Early in the day Mayor Beck issued an appeal to the country, but after a conference with Acting Gov. Eben S. Draper, the appeal was amended so as to include only the state. Announcement was made that $39,238 had been raised by subscription in Boston before night. In addition, the city of Chelsea appropriated $10,000, and a resolve for $100,000 from the state was introduced in the house of representatives. Many nearby cities announced the starting of subscription papers.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN.

Ties Piled on Lackawanna Track Near Lowman, N. Y.

Elmira, N. Y.—A desperate attempt was made Monday night to wreck a west-bound passenger train on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad near Lowman, seven miles east, by piling ties on the track. The train was running 60 miles an hour. The obstruction was on a curve and close to the river. The locomotive ground one of the ties to pieces and shoved the others along on the rails. When the train was stopped a similar obstruction was found on the east-bound tracks, where a freight train was due.

Chattanooga, Tenn. — Incendiaries set fire to the Southern railway bridge at Costanaula, Ga., about 20 miles below Dalton Sunday, and but for the timely discovery on the part of a farmer, passengers on the early train might have been dashed to death.

TO PRESERVE STREAM RIGHTS.

President Sends in Veto Message on Power Privileges.

Washington.—In a special message Monday vetoing a dam bill, President Roosevelt warned congress that there are pending in this session bills which propose to give away without price stream-rights capable of developing 1,300,000 horse-power whose production would cost annually 25,000,000 tons of coal; urged in vigorous terms the establishment of a policy, such as the filibustering minority in the house demands, which would safeguard the granting of bridge and dam privileges and require the grantees to pay for them, and definitely announced a future policy on his part with regard to prompt utilization of construction privileges, by refusing his signature to a bill giving an additional three years to the Rainy River Improvement company within which to build a dam in the Rainy river.

Confess to Fake Robbery.

Chillicothe, Mo.—George Doel, night operator at the Milwaukee railroad station in Braymer, who was found bound and gagged in his office Friday morning and who reported that two robbers had thus secured him before robbing the company's cash drawer of $250, Monday confessed that he and a confederate had committed the robbery The confederate, Charles Michaels, bound and gagged Doel after the robbery. Michaels also confessed and both are in jail at Kingston.

Historic Berlin Church Burns.

Berlin. — The historic garrison church in the Neue Friedrichstrasse, dating from 1703, was completely burned out Monday night, together with numerous ancient regimental shot-torn flags carried in various wars, which decorated the central aisle of the church. Only one of these flags was saved. Crown Prince Frederick William, the commandant of the Berlin garrison, and the leading military officers were in the enormous crowd of spectators which witnessed the fire.

Truth and Quality

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing. Accordingly, it is not claimed that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the only remedy of known value, but one of many reasons why it is the best of personal and family laxatives is the fact that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the internal organs on which it acts without any debilitating after effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time.

It acts pleasantly and naturally and truly as a laxative, and its component parts are known to and approved by physicians, as it is free from all objectionable substances. To get its beneficial effects always purchase the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

Recommended His Wife.

Irvin Cobb, humorist of New York, was recommended to a lecture management. The latter sought an introduction through a friend, Mr. McVeigh.

"Come here, Irvin, I want you to meet a friend of mine," said McVeigh. After a few minutes' conversation, the lecture man broached the subject of lecturing as follows:

"I was just wondering, Mr. Cobb, what you would think of a proposition to do some lecture work next season?"

Cobb looked at his questioner for just a moment in blank amazement. Evidently such a thought had never entered his head before. Then reaching out his hand confidentially, he said:

"I've got it. My wife will do it. She is the best one I know."—Lyceum and Talent.

LOST $300.

Buying Medicine When Right Food Was Needed.

Money spent for "tonics" and "bracers" to relieve indigestion, while the poor old stomach is loaded with pastry and pork, is worse than losing a pocketbook containing the money.

If the money only is lost it's bad enough, but with lost health from wrong eating, it is hard to make the money back.

A Mich. young lady lost money on drugs but is thankful she found a way to get back her health by proper food. She writes:

"I had been a victim of nervous dyspepsia for six years and spent three hundred dollars for treatment in the attempt to get well. None of it did me any good.

"Finally I tried Grape-Nuts food, and the results were such that, if it cost a dollar a package, I would not be without it. My trouble had been caused by eating rich food such as pastry and pork.

"The most wonderful thing that ever happened to me, I am sure, was the change in my condition after I began to eat Grape-Nuts. I began to improve at once and the first week gained four pounds.

"I feel that I cannot express myself in terms that are worthy of the benefit Grape-Nuts has brought to me, and you are perfectly free to publish this letter if it will send some poor sufferer relief, such as has come to me."

CHICAGO BROKER A SUICIDE.

Lorenzo D. Kneeland Kills Himself by Shooting.

Chicago.—Lorenzo D. Kneeland, former senior member of the firm of Kneeland, Clement & Curtis, brokers, committed suicide at his home by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. The bullet penetrated the brain, causing instant death. Mr. Kneeland was a member of the Chicago board of trade and the Chicago stock exchange. He retired from active business about two years ago. The act of self-destruction came as a profound shock to financial and other business circles. Recently Mr. Kneeland applied for more life insurance, but the insurance company refused to accept him, and that is said to have led to despondency. He was in La Salle street for a little while the day before the suicide, and his friends were startled by his debilitated appearance.

$10,000 ECHO OF SALOON WAR.

League Chairman, Assaulted Near Fairfield Before Election, Sues.

Fairfield.—Lewis D. Barth, chairman of the Wayne County Anti-Saloon league, filed suit for $10,000 damages against Robert Jackson, a saloon keeper at Millshoals, ten miles south. The suit grows out of injuries received by Barth in an encounter Monday evening before election, when he went to Millshoals to make a temperance address. Barth was knocked down several times. Saloons were voted out by 38 majority in Millshoals township.

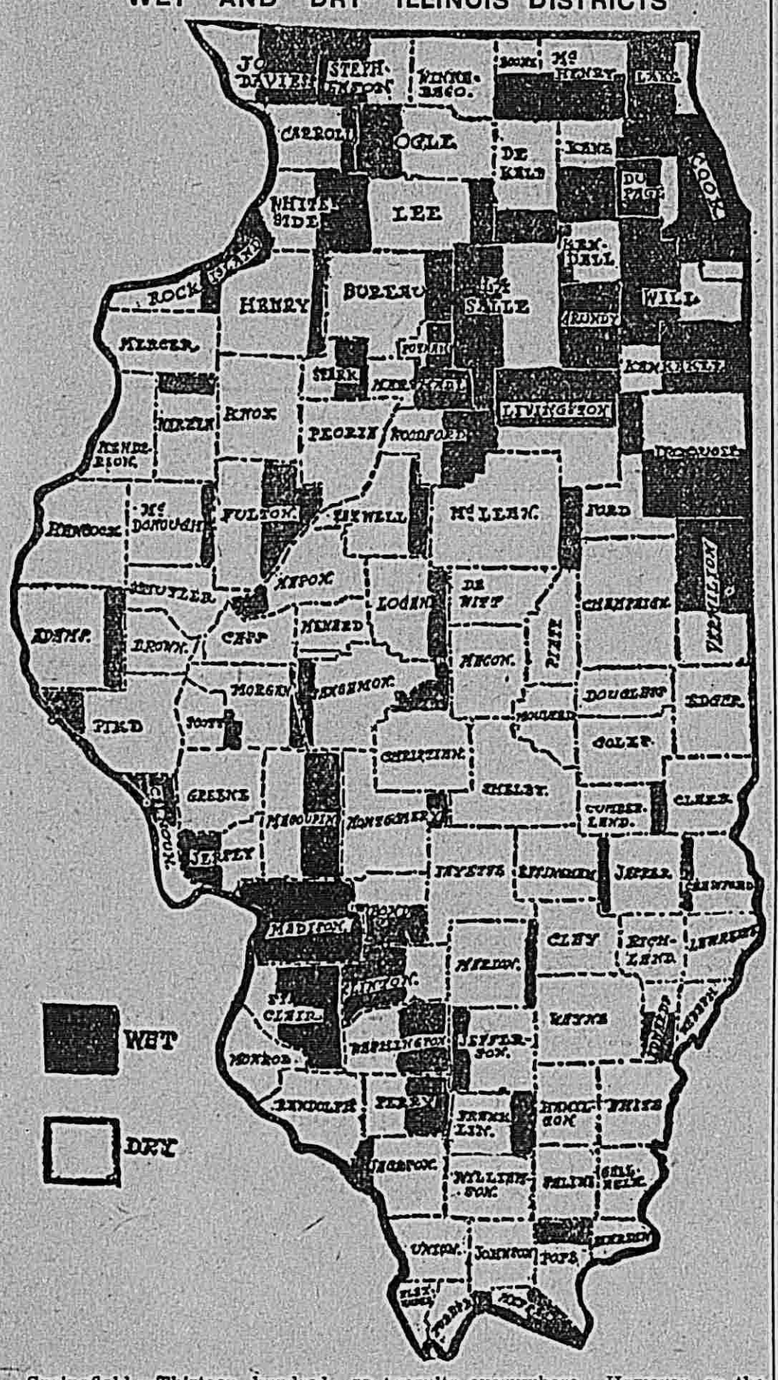

POLITICAL NOTES.

Chicago.—Municipal Court Judge I. H. Himes and John F. Devine were elected delegates to the Republican national convention from the Eighth congressional district, and were instructed for Speaker Joseph G. Cannon. Edward Smejkal and Leland Berz were elected alternates.

Peoria.—The Republican congressional convention of the Sixteenth Illinois district elected as delegates to the national convention Walter S. Horton and Robert D. Clarke, and as alternates A. G. Hammond and Thomas L. Jones. Speaker Cannon was indorsed for president.

Clinton.—The county central committee of the Democratic party met and selected delegates to the state convention. They were: L. M. Glazebrook, Emerson Hartsock, H. A. Campbell, P. M. Smallwood, J. P. Green, L. Murphy, G. B. Marvel, George Hughes and George Resser. The committee indorsed William Jennings Bryan and Roger Sullivan.

"WET" AND "DRY" ILLINOIS DISTRICTS

Springfield.—Thirteen hundred saloons, according to latest reports, have been abolished by the local option balloting recently. The returns from around the state are being received at the capitol and by the anti-saloonists slowly, and it will be some time before authorities will find themselves able to issue a minute report on the results everywhere. However, as the reports come in, the expectations of the Illinoir Anti-Saloon league officers are surpassed and that organization has already planned to carry on the work on a larger scale during the coming year in the hope of eliminating many of the remaining thirst parlors.

Searches for Kettle of Gold.

Kankakee.—John Warren, a coal miner of Owensboro, Ky., was in Kankakee searching for a kettle of gold containing $5,000 of which he claims companions planned to rob him. He was seriously injured a few days later in a railroad accident and was taken to Kentucky before he could dig up the gold.

Little Boy Kills Baby Sister.

Elgin.—While playing with his father's shotgun Earl, six years old, son of Chrost Reimer of Hanover, fatally shot his sister Lillie, aged three, while the latter lay in bed. The bedding was set afire, but the child arose, seemingly uninjured. Later fatal wounds were found and the girl died.

Pittsfield Vetoes Township School.

Pittsfield.—The proposition to establish a township high school in Pittsfield township was defeated at the election. Hhere were 636 votes cast, of which 187 were for and 449 were against the proposition.

SPRING KIDNEY TROUBLE.

Vividly Described by One Who Has Suffered from It.

Mrs. H. Mutzabaugh, of Duncannon, Pa., says: "I was sick and miserable all last Spring and as I did not know what was the matter I kept going down and down until I was a physical wreck. I had smothering spells, flashes of heat over the kidneys and pain in passing the kidney secretions, which contained sediment. My husband urged me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and at last I did so. They did me much good, and I used in all eight boxes which restored me to perfect health."

MADE HIS MEANING CLEAR.

Professor's Son Translated Father's Speech Into the Vernacular.

A college professor, in company with his son, was enjoying a walk in the country, when he met an old farmer. It had been a very wet season, and the professor, thinking to start the conversation in a way that would prove interesting to the farmer, remarked:

"There has been a rather abnormal precipitation of late."

The farmer seemed somewhat embarrassed, and the professor's son, who used a different vernacular, though he was a student in the college to which his father was attached, attempted to straighten out the matter. Drawing the farmer to one side, he said in a superior way:

"The governor means that we've been having a devil of a lot of rain."—Harper's Weekly.

MACHINE-GROUND PAINT.

Occasionally one hears the "hand-mixed" paint of the painter slightingly spoken of as "unscientific" and "not thoroughly mixed." The facts are all on the side of the painter and his hand-prepared paint.

It is the most "scientific" paint there is, because it is made on the spot to suit the particular purpose for which it is to be used. It is as scientific as a good doctor's prescription. If the painter did not mix it thus it would be as unscientific as a patent medicine. Moreover, the paint which a good painter turns out is made of genuine white lead and pure linseed oil. If he does not mix it himself he is not sure what is in it, and consequently his client cannot be sure.

As for not being thoroughly mixed by machinery, that is simply a misstatement. White Lead as made by National Lead Company is thoroughly incorporated with 7 or 8 per cent. of pure Linseed oil in the factory, making a paste. This paste need only be thinned with additional linseed oil to make it ready for the brush.

The thorough incorporation of pigment and oil has already been accomplished before the painter gets it.

To know how to tell pure white lead is a great advantage to both painter and house-owner. National Lead Company will send a tester free to anyone interested. Address the company at Woodbridge Building, New York, N. Y.

NEW ARRIVALS IN CANADA NEARLY 300,000 IN 1907.

ABOUT SIXTY THOUSAND FROM THE UNITED STATES.

Now that it is known that in the year just closed nearly sixty thousand from the United States declared their intention of making their homes in Canada, it might not be out of place to search for some reasons that would bring this about. These people are but following the example of the fifty-five or sixty thousand who did the same thing the year previous, and an almost equal number who the year before that but followed the example of the thousands of the year preceding. An excellent climate, certain and positive crops of grain of all kinds, good markets for their produce, land—and good land, too—at low prices, easy terms of payment, (not forgetting the 160 acres of land given free by the Government, particulars of which the Canadian Government Agent whose name appears elsewhere will tell you about) and then the splendid social conditions. The situation is pretty well sized up by a writer in one of the magazines. Quoting from this article, we find this: "Those of us who made good in the States," interjected another settler as if to continue the story of his neighbor, "have had it easy from the start; a little money is a mighty good thing on coming into a new country. But those who make an entry, or even buy lands at low rates, are able to square things in two or three seasons' crops. There are hardships in building shanties, and then with increasing prosperity getting things into shape for better homes. But affairs go much as in the States. We have the largest liberty in the world; there is more home rule in the Provinces than in the several states of the Republic. Taxes are light and with only a few million people west of Winnipeg we don't get in each other's way. One's friends over the line probably thought we would not live through the winter; and while it is cold, real cold, it is free from the moisture experienced in the east. Schools are good as encouraged by the Government; the enterprising American promoter and Yankee drummer see to it that we take notice of the latest improvements and best agricultural machinery. Altogether we are as near to affairs as we would be on our own farms in the States. Winnipeg bears the same relation to us as Chicago did at home; and Edmonton with the surrounding region advances as Omaha did in the days when we were as young as the boys yonder. We get together much as they did in the granges over the border; the government has established experimental schools of agriculture, and progress in every line is stimulated. This is a great region for grazing," we hear the Calgary citizen continuing, "and then with building elevators of wheat at one dollar a bushel, many of us find time to go over to the live stock exhibition in Chicago or visit old friends during the course of the winter. Every man is taken for what he is worth or for what he can raise; and in this good air and on this fertile soil we intend to show our old friends that we are made of the right stuff—that we are chips of the old block who built up the American West."

Piles are easily and quickly checked with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. To prove it I will mail a small trial box as a convincing test. Simply address Dr. Shoop, Racine Wis. I surely would not send it free unless I was certain that Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment would stand the test. Remember it is made expressly and alone for swollen painful, bleeding, or itching piles, either external or internal. Large jar 50c. Sold by J. H. Swan.

Women and Diplomacy.

Almost all the celebrated women have gained their fame by diplomatic means. The famous women of Jewish history were all subtle in their methods—Rebecca, Jael and Herodias, to name but a few of them. What born diplomatists, too, were Catherine of Siena, the great saint, and Catherine de Medici, the great sinner. The list of them down the ages is unending. The royal road to fame as well as to peace would seem for women to be marked by the sign-posts of diplomacy.

The effect of Scott's Emulsion on thin, pale children is magical.

It makes them plump, rosy, active, happy.

It contains Cod Liver Oil, Hypophosphites and Glycerine, to make fat, blood and bone, and so put together that it is easily digested by little folk.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

Stanislaus County Exhibit Cars

M. LEAK, Manager Stanislaus County Exhibit Cars. (En Route)

DEAR SIR:—We have gathered from our orchards, vineyards and ranches samples of what we are raising NOW in Stanislaus county, California, by irrigation, and want you to show it and extend an invitation

TO THE FARMER—As a good living can be made from 20 acres.
TO THE MECHANIC—As wages are high.
TO THE OLD—As the climate is perfect and will extend their days.
TO THE YOUNG—As it's new and a fine country to grow up in.
TO THE RICH—As their investments will increase.
TO THE POOR—As living is cheap and wages high.

To come and live with us where land and water are yet cheap, AND THE LAND OWNS THE WATER

COMMITTEE ON ADVERTISING STANISLAUS COUNTY, CALIFORNIA.

TO THE PUBLIC:

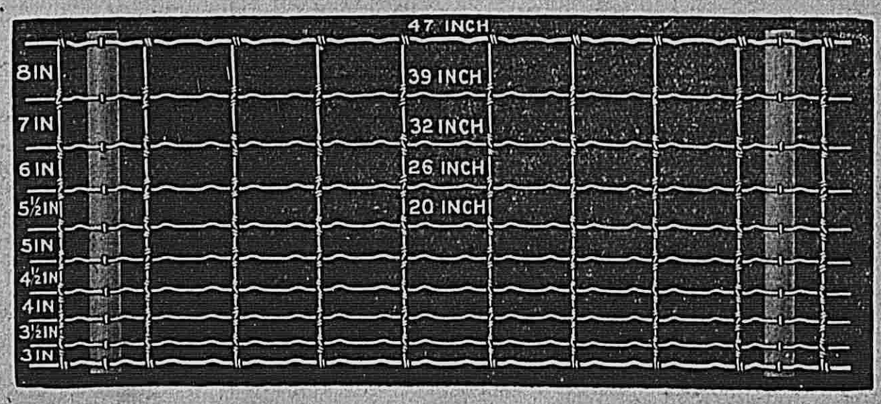

COME and see their exhibit of fruits and vegetables grown by IRRIGATION, the finest ever. The LARGEST FISH ever captured, 36 feet long and weighed 10,383 pounds, and the finest exhibit cars ever built. Admission to the train ONLY 15 CENTS to everybody, (EXCEPT WHEN SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS ARE MADE WITH SCHOOLS), and be given a beautiful sea shell, lucky sea bean or coral FREE, as a souvenir from the best county in the golden state. Yours respectfully,

SEE BILLS LATER. M. LEAK, Manager.
